JULY 31st – EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings and Reflection for this Sunday

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23 Psalm 95:1-2,6-9 Colossians 3:1-5,9-11 Luke 12:13-21

In Chapter 12 of Luke's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples and the crowd on how to be ready for the coming judgment. A crowd of many thousands has gathered to hear Jesus. At first he speaks only to the disciples, reminding them that it is not persecution they should fear but the judgment that is coming for all who do not acknowledge the Son of Man. Suddenly a man in the crowd shouts out to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." He seems to have grown tired of Jesus speaking only to the disciples. Jesus offers the man no help. Instead he uses the question to teach what, in light of the coming judgment, life really consist of.

Jesus tells the crowd a parable. A rich man's lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all.

He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry. "You fool" is God's response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man's world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God.

Centuries later St. Gregory the Great taught that when we care for the needs of the poor, we are giving them what is theirs, not ours. We are not just performing works of mercy; we are paying a debt of justice. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others. The goods of the earth have been given to everyone.

What is evangelization all about? What role does the Church expect ordinary Catholics to play in spreading the Catholic Faith? Dr. Scott Hahn, author and renowned theologian, challenges cradle Catholics to witness to the Faith through everyday life. He presents proven and effective ways to touch those who have fallen away from the Church, even those with the most hardened of hearts.

JULIO 31 – DECIMOCTAVO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Lectura y Reflexión para este Domingo

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23 Salmos 95:1-2,6-9 Colosenses 3:1-5,9-11 Lucas 12:13-21

En el capítulo 12 del Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús instruye a sus discípulos y a la multitud sobre cómo estar preparados para el juicio verdadero. Una multitud de miles de personas se han reunido para escuchar a Jesús.

Al principio habla sólo a los discípulos, recordándoles que no es la persecución lo que deben temer, sino el juicio que viene para todos los que no reconocen al Hijo del Hombre. De repente, un hombre en la multitud le grita a Jesús: “Maestro, dile a mi hermano que comparta la herencia conmigo”. Parece haberse cansado de que Jesús hable solo a los discípulos. Jesús no ofrece ayuda al hombre. En cambio, usa la pregunta para enseñar qué, a la luz del juicio verdadero, la vida realmente consiste.

Jesús le cuenta una parábola a la multitud. Las tierras de un hombre rico han producido más cosechas de las esperadas. Su respuesta no es considerar cómo podría compartir toda la comida extra con los demás, sino preguntarse cómo es posible que pueda almacenarla toda. Tiene lo que cree que es una idea brillante: derribar sus graneros actuales y construir otros más grandes. Entonces tendrá muchas cosas almacenadas para años de comer, beber y divertirse. “Necio” es la respuesta de Dios a este hombre porque esa misma noche le quitarán la vida. A quién pertenecerá entonces todo, pregunta Dios. El mundo del hombre rico es pequeño, solo él y sus posesiones, y ahora se entera de que va a perder la vida. ¿De qué sirven sus posesiones ahora? Jesús declara la moraleja de la historia. Así será para todo aquel que atesora para sí mismo, pero no es rico en lo que a Dios le importa.

Siglos después, San Gregorio Magno enseñó que cuando atendemos las necesidades de los pobres, les estamos dando lo que es de ellos, no nuestro. No solo estamos realizando obras de misericordia; estamos pagando una deuda de justicia. La vida no consiste en posesiones sino en compartir lo que poseemos con los demás. los bienes de la tierra han sido dados a todos.

¿De qué se trata la evangelización? ¿Qué papel espera la Iglesia que desempeñen los católicos ordinarios en la difusión de la fe católica?
El Dr. Scott Hahn, autor y renombrado teólogo, desafía a los católicos de cuna a dar testimonio de la fe a través de la vida cotidiana.
Presenta formas comprobadas y efectivas de tocar a aquellos que se han apartado de la Iglesia, incluso aquellos con los corazones más endurecidos. [How to Bring Fallen-Away Catholics Back to the Church
