Readings and Reflection for this Sunday

2 Samuel 5:1-3 Psalm 122:1-2,3-4,4-5 Colossians 1:12-20 Luke 23:35-43

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Just what are relics?- Have 8 Minutes?

Relics are the remains or possessions of holy persons and are divided into three categories.

First-class relics consist of the bodily remains of saints (such as bone fragments) or the instruments of Christ's Passion, such as the True Cross. Second-class relics are personal belongings of saints, such as articles of clothing, or the instruments used in the torture and death of martyrs. Third-class relics are any objects which have come into physical contact with first- or second-class relics.

The relics of the saints and their veneration is just another in the long line of treasures which Jesus Christ has given to His chaste bride, the Church.

These relics summon us to appreciate more profoundly not only the heroic men and women, boys and girls who have served the Master so selflessly and generously, but especially the love and mercy of the Almighty who called these His followers to the bliss of unending life in His eternal kingdom. Bishop Barron explain the relics of the Saints!

Lectura Y Reflexión para este Domingo

2 Samuel 5:1-3 Salmos 122:1-2,3-4,4-5
 Colosenses 1:12-20 Lucas 23:35-43

Hoy como Iglesia, concluimos nuestro año litúrgico y celebramos la Fiesta de Cristo Rey. El Evangelio que proclamamos muestra el gran misterio de nuestra fe: en el momento de su crucifixión, Jesús se muestra Rey y Salvador de todos.

El Evangelio de Lucas ha estado cargado de sorpresas: los pobres son ricos, los pecadores encuentran la salvación, el Reino de Dios se encuentra en medio de nosotros. Aquí vemos la mayor sorpresa de todas. Estamos frente a Jesús crucificado, de quien la fe nos dice que es Rey y Salvador de todos. La ironía es que la inscripción colocada en la cruz, quizás como burla, contiene la más profunda de las verdades. Mientras los líderes se burlan, el ladrón crucificado a su lado reconoce a Jesús como Mesías y Rey, y encuentra la salvación.

Jesús es Rey, pero no el tipo de rey que podríamos haber imaginado o esperado. Su reinado estaba oculto a muchos de sus contemporáneos, pero aquellos que tenían los ojos de la fe podían ver. Como discípulos modernos de Jesús, a nosotros también nos cuesta reconocer a Jesús como Rey. El Evangelio de hoy nos invita a hacer nuestro propio juicio. Con los ojos de la fe, también nosotros reconocemos que Jesús, el crucificado, es verdaderamente Rey y Salvador de todos. Loyolapress.com ¿Qué son las reliquias? - ¿Tienes 8 minutos?

Las reliquias son los restos o posesiones de personas santas y se dividen en tres categorías. Las reliquias de primera clase consisten en los restos corporales de los santos (como fragmentos de huesos) o los instrumentos de la Pasión de Cristo, como la Vera Cruz. Las reliquias de segunda clase son pertenencias personales de los santos, como prendas de vestir o los instrumentos utilizados en la tortura y muerte de los mártires. Las reliquias de tercera clase son cualquier objeto que haya entrado en contacto físico con reliquias de Primera o segunda clase. Las reliquias de los santos y su veneración es sólo uno más en la larga lista de tesoros que Jesucristo ha dado a su casta esposa, la Iglesia. Estas reliquias nos invitan a apreciar más profundamente no solo a los heroicos hombres y mujeres, niños que han servido al Maestro tan desinteresada y generosamente, sino especialmente el amor y la misericordia del Todopoderoso que llamó a estos Sus seguidores a la dicha de la vida sin fin en Su reino eterno. El obispo Barron explica la reliquias de los santos!
