Readings and Reflection for this Sunday

*2 Kings 4:8-11,14-16a Psalm 89:2-3,16-19 Romans 6:3-4,8-11
Matthew 10:37-42*

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

Fall in deeper love with the Eucharist!

It's easy to fall into a routine and lose sight of the little miracles all around us. Unfortunately, it is even easy to fall into a routine and lose sight of the greatest miracle of all, happening right in front of us. Fr. Mike discusses the greatest gift God has ever given man: himself. Listen to the shocking reality of what it means to eat Jesus' body and drink Jesus' blood. His body and blood are what save our fallen human nature and give us life. This miracle gives us an opportunity to partake in redemption, unite with our Savior, and live a sacramental life. He talks fast, so he packs a lot into 8 minutes, but worth every minute!

Saint Thomas, whose feast day is July 3, is one of the Twelve Apostles of Jesus chosen by Him to evangelize the world. Best known for his initial unwillingness to believe the other apostles in their claim that Jesus had risen from the dead, St. Thomas can teach the faithful about believing without seeing. Heavenly Father, let our celebration of the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle be the source of his unfailing help and protection. Fill us with Your life-giving grace through Faith in Your Son, our Jesus, whom Thomas acknowledged to be his Lord and God.

MARRIAGE AS A CATHOLIC – Is Marriage 50/50?

It seems like that would be correct, but marriage is not 50 percent from each spouse. It is 100% from each of you. Marriage, also known as matrimony, is a sacrament in the Catholic Church; it is the union of one male to one female in order to come closer to God and is the appropriate venue in which to bear children. Marriage is a sacred covenant between each spouse with each other and with God.

A sacrament is an outward expression of inward grace. Sacramentally speaking, each spouse in the marriage acts as a conduit of God's grace to the other spouse, hence the reason it is a sacrament. Christ is the source of this grace and the spouses serve as Christ to each other. Catechize and educate yourself on the meaning of marriage as the union of one man and one woman. This video explores the themes of sexual difference and complementarity in the relationship between a man and woman in marriage. You can find it on Formed or here:

Lecturas y Reflexion para este Domingo

2 Reyes 4:8-11,14-16a Salmos 89:2-3,16-19 Romanos 6:3-4,8-11
Mateo 10:37-42

El Evangelio de hoy es la conclusión de las instrucciones y consuelos que hemos escuchado a Jesús ofrecer a sus discípulos durante las últimas semanas. En este pasaje, Jesús resume tanto los costos del discipulado como sus recompensas. Una vez más, nuestra comprensión del Evangelio se fortalece al considerar el contexto en el que fue escrito y la perspectiva de la audiencia de Mateo.

Las condiciones del discipulado descritas en el Evangelio de Mateo pueden parecer duras. Sin embargo, nos subrayan una verdad: elegir cualquier cosa con todo el corazón tiene consecuencias. Elegir la vida con Cristo significa que cada relación que tenemos debe ser entendida desde una nueva perspectiva. Para muchos en la comunidad de Mateo, esta elección trajo división a su familia.

Mateo también describe la recompensa de la hospitalidad ofrecida a los seguidores de Jesús. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús explica las dificultades del discipulado, pero revela que aquellos que acogen a los discípulos tienen

También le dio la bienvenida.

El Evangelio de hoy también nos destaca la importancia de la hospitalidad en la vida cristiana. Dar la bienvenida a otro en el nombre de Jesús es extender hospitalidad a Jesús mismo. Tenemos muchas oportunidades en nuestra vida diaria para llegar a los demás, para ser una presencia acogedora y un signo del amor de Dios.

Santo Tomás, cuya fiesta es el 3 de julio, es uno de los Doce Apóstoles de Jesús elegidos por Él para evangelizar el mundo. Mejor conocido por su falta de voluntad inicial para creer a los otros apóstoles en su afirmación de que Jesús había resucitado de entre los muertos, Santo Tomás puede enseñar a los fieles acerca de creer sin ver. Padre celestial, que nuestra celebración de la fiesta de Santo Tomás el Apóstol sea la fuente de su ayuda y protección infalibles. Llénanos de tu gracias vivificante a través de la fe en tu hijo, nuestro Jesús, a quien Tomás reconoció como su Señor

¡Enamórate más profundamente de la Eucaristía!

Es fácil caer en una rutina y perder de vista los pequeños milagros que nos rodean. Desafortunadamente, incluso es fácil caer en una rutina y perder de vista el milagro más grande de todos, que sucede justo frente a nosotros. El P. Mike habla sobre el regalo más grande que Dios le ha dado al hombre: a sí mismo. Escuche la impactante realidad de lo que significa comer el cuerpo de Jesús y beber la sangre de Jesús. Su cuerpo y sangre son los que salvan nuestra naturaleza humana caída y nos dan vida. Este milagro nos da la oportunidad de participar en la redención, unirnos con nuestro Salvador y vivir una vida sacramental. Habla rápido, así que empaqueta mucho en 8 minutos, ¡pero vale la pena cada minuto!

EL MATRIMONIO COMO CATOLICOS – EL Matrimonio es de 50/50?

Parece que eso sería correcto, pero el matrimonio no es el 50 por ciento de cada cónyuge. Es 100% de cada uno de ustedes. El matrimonio, también conocido como matrimonio, es un sacramento en la Iglesia Católica; es la unión de un varón a una hembra para acercarse a Dios y es el lugar apropiado para tener hijos. El matrimonio es un pacto sagrado entre cada cónyuge entre sí y con Dios.

Un sacramento es una expresión externa de la gracia interior.

Sacramentalmente Al hablar, cada cónyuge en el matrimonio actúa como un conducto de la gracia de Dios. Al otro cónyuge, de ahí la razón por la que es un sacramento. Cristo es la fuente de esta gracia y los esposos sirven como Cristo el uno al otro. Catequizar y educarse sobre el significado del matrimonio como el Unión de un hombre y una mujer. Este video explora los temas de Diferencia sexual y complementariedad en la relación entre un hombre y mujer en matrimonio. Puedes encontrarlo en Formado o aquí:
