Readings and Reflection for this Sunday

Malachi 1:14b—2:2b,8-10 Psalm 131:1-3 1
Thessalonians 2:7b-9,13 Matthew 23:1-12

This part of Matthew's Gospel reflects aspects of the conflict between his Christian community and Pharisaic Judaism. Matthew's Church is thought to have included many Jewish Christians who may not have believed that a break with the synagogue was necessary to be a follower of Jesus. Jesus tells the crowd that it is correct to do and observe what the scribes and Pharisees teach; it is their example that is to be avoided, namely, their love of being honored and exalted. Hence, the Gospel reflects the tension of an active internal debate within the early Church.

Jesus references two aspects of Jewish spiritual life prescribed by the Law of Moses. Phylacteries are small boxes which contain Scripture verses that are placed on the left forearm and forehead. Tassels refer to the fringes worn on the corners of a person's garments; the tassels help to remind those who wear them to keep the commandments. The warning Jesus gives against seeking places of honor in the community was directed as much toward the Christian community as the named Jewish leaders. Indeed, it is a warning that resonates with us today. Christian leadership is a call to service for the glory of God; those who would be leaders among us must, like Jesus, be servants of all. This Week's Saints/Feast Days: Spend some extra time praying the rosary or learning about these saints:

- 11/05 – St. Elizabeth, cousin of the Virgin Mary
- 11/09 – Feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica
- 11/10 – St. Leo the Great, Pope, Doctor of the Church
- 11/11 – St. Martin de Tours, Bishop

Prayer Before Receiving Holy Communion: O Lord, Jesus Christ, King of everlasting glory, behold I desire to come to you this day, and to receive your Body and Blood in this heavenly Sacrament, for your honor and glory, and the good of my soul. I desire to receive you, because it is your desire, and you have so willed it: blessed be your Name forever. I desire to come to you like Mary Magdalen, that I may be delivered from all my evils, and embrace you, my only God. I desire to come to you, that I may be happily united to you, that I may henceforth abide in you, and you in me; and that nothing in life or death may ever separate me from you. Amen.

“Our sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ has no other purpose than to transform us into that which we receive.” St. Leo the Great Adoration: Thursdays from 6-7pm and Fridays 7:15-8:15 a.m.

Next weekend, all Catholics are being asked to support the Annual Seminaries' Appeal. We are uniquely blessed to have two seminaries in the Archdiocese of Denver that help answer God's call to serve His Church. St. John Vianney Theological Seminary and Redemptoris Mater Archdiocesan Missionary Seminary offer two distinct Paths to the Priesthood with a shared goal of strengthening the future of the Catholic Church. Your gift is an investment in the future of our Church while also encouraging our seminarians on their daily path to priesthood. Thank you and please visit archden.org/futurepriests to donate today.

Do you have a Question?? We have an answer! Catechism Corner of our faith!

Question: How can I explain to Protestant friends why Catholics go to confession? They ask, "Can't God forgive your sins directly?"

Answer: You could ask another question before answering, "Why do we not object to having a mediator, another man, at the sacrament of baptism? Why don't we just baptize ourselves?" Baptism, among other things, cleanses us of sin. The sacrament of reconciliation is like a second baptism; it cleanses us of post-baptismal sin. If we have no objections to another man's mediating to us God's grace in the sacrament of baptism, why should we object to another man's mediating God's grace in the sacrament of reconciliation?

The primary reason, however, why the Catholic Church asks her members to confess their sins to a priest is simply because the Church has always believed that sin, however private, is a community affair. Every sin, however small, wounds the Body of Christ, the members of the Church. When any of its members sin, they all suffer. Moreover, because my sins wound the community and diminish its effectiveness, reconciliation must include the community and not just God. In the confessional, the priest is the representative of God and of the community. In the confessional, the priest represents the whole Christ, the Head (Jesus) and the members (the Church). Strictly speaking, there is no such thing as a "private" sin—not in the sense of a sin that affects nobody but myself. There are secret sins, but there are none which are matters affecting "only myself and God." Likewise, our penitence benefits the whole Church, so we celebrate reconciliation communally.

Watch next week for another faith topic!

LECTURAS Y REFLEXION PARA ESTE DOMINGO

Malaquías 1:14b—2:2b,8-10 Salmos 131:1-3 1
Tesalonicenses 2:7b-9,13 Mateo 23:1-12

Esta parte del Evangelio de Mateo refleja aspectos del conflicto entre su comunidad cristiana y el judaísmo farisaico. Se cree que la Iglesia de Mateo incluía a muchos cristianos judíos que tal vez no creían que era necesaria una ruptura con la sinagoga para ser seguidor de Jesús.

Jesús le dice a la multitud que es correcto hacer y observar lo que enseñan los escribas y fariseos; lo que debe evitarse es su ejemplo, es decir, su amor a ser honrados y exaltados. Por tanto, el Evangelio refleja la tensión de un activo debate interno dentro de la Iglesia primitiva. Jesús hace referencia a dos aspectos de la vida espiritual judía prescritos por la Ley de Moisés. Las filacterias son pequeñas cajas que contienen versículos de las Escrituras que se colocan en el antebrazo y la frente izquierdos. Las borlas se refieren a los flecos que se usan en las esquinas de la ropa de una persona; las borlas ayudan a recordar a quienes las usan que deben guardar los mandamientos. La advertencia que Jesús da contra la búsqueda de lugares de honor en la comunidad estaba dirigida tanto a la comunidad cristiana como a los líderes judíos nombrados. De hecho, es una advertencia que hoy resuena en nosotros. El liderazgo cristiano es un llamado al servicio para la gloria de Dios; aquellos que serían Los líderes entre nosotros deben, como Jesús, ser servidores de todos.

El próximo fin de semana, se pide a todos los católicos que apoyen la Campaña Anual de los Seminarios. Tenemos la bendición única de tener dos seminarios en la Arquidiócesis de Denver que ayudan a responder al llamado de Dios de servir a Su Iglesia. El Seminario Teológico St. John Vianney y el Seminario Misionero Arquidiocesano Redemptoris Mater ofrecen dos Caminos distintos hacia el Sacerdocio con el objetivo compartido de fortalecer el futuro de la Iglesia Católica. Su donación es una inversión en el futuro de nuestra Iglesia y al mismo tiempo anima a nuestra seminaristas en su camino diario hacia el sacerdocio. Gracias y visite archden.org/futurepriests para donar hoy. O puede comunicarse directamente con los seminarios para donar:

¿¿Tienes una Pregunta?? ¡Pues tenemos la Respuesta! ¡Nuestra Fe en el Catecismo!

Pregunta: ¿Cómo puedo explicar a mis amigos protestantes por qué los católicos se confiesan? Preguntan: "¿No puede Dios perdonar tus pecados directamente?"

Respuesta: Podría hacer otra pregunta antes de responder: "¿Por qué no nos oponemos a tener un mediador, otro hombre, en el sacramento del bautismo? ¿Por qué no nos bautizamos nosotros mismos?" El bautismo, entre otras cosas, nos limpia del pecado. El sacramento de la reconciliación es como un segundo bautismo; nos limpia del pecado pos-bautismal. Si no tenemos objeciones a que otro hombre medie la gracia de Dios en el sacramento del bautismo, ¿por qué deberíamos oponernos a que otro hombre medie la gracia de Dios en el sacramento de la reconciliación?

Sin embargo, la razón principal por la que la Iglesia Católica pide a sus miembros que confiesen sus pecados a un sacerdote es simplemente porque la Iglesia siempre ha creído que el pecado, por privado que sea, es un asunto comunitario. Todo pecado, por pequeño que sea, hiera al Cuerpo de Cristo, los miembros de la Iglesia. Cuando alguno de sus miembros peca, todos sufren. Además, debido a que mis pecados hieren a la comunidad y disminuyen su eficacia, la reconciliación debe incluir a la comunidad y no sólo a Dios. En el confesionario, el sacerdote es el representante de Dios y de la comunidad. En el confesionario, el sacerdote representa a Cristo todo, la Cabeza (Jesús) y los miembros (la Iglesia). Estrictamente hablando, no existe un pecado "privado", no en el sentido de un pecado que no afecta a nadie más que a mí mismo. Hay pecados secretos, pero no hay ninguno que sea asunto que afecte "sólo a mí y a Dios". Asimismo, nuestra penitencia beneficia a toda la Iglesia, por eso celebramos comunitariamente la reconciliación. ¡Mire la próxima semana para conocer otro tema de fe!
