NOV 12TH – THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings and Reflection for this Sunday

Wisdom 6:12-16 Psalm 63:2,3-4,5-6,7-8 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 Matthew 25:1-13

This week's reading follows a series of warnings and predictions by Jesus about the coming of the Son of Man. Jesus wants his disciples to understand that the exact day and time cannot be predicted. He teaches the disciples that they must remain vigilant so that they will not be caught unprepared.

When thinking about the parable of the wise and foolish virgins, it is important to consider the first-century wedding traditions of Palestine. Scholars tell us that it was the custom of the day for young maidens—friends and family members of the bride—to meet the bridegroom when he came to bring his bride to her new home.

As with many of Jesus' parables, several levels of interpretation are possible. In last week's Gospel, we heard Jesus warn against following the example of the Pharisees and scribes. If read in the context of early Christianity's struggle to define itself against Pharisaic Judaism, this parable is a continuing critique of Judaism. It suggests that the Jewish leaders were like the foolish virgins, unprepared to meet Jesus, the bridegroom of Israel.

In the chapter preceding this parable, however, Jesus warns about the destruction of Jerusalem, the tribulation of the end times, and the coming of the Son of Man. When read in this context, today's parable is a warning to the Christian community to remain vigilant and prepared to receive Jesus, the Son of Man who will return at the end of time. This interpretation is supported by the reference to the delay of the bridegroom. The Christian community for whom Matthew wrote this Gospel was coming to terms with the realization that the promise of Jesus' return would not be fulfilled within their lifetimes. The question remains for us to ask ourselves, Are we ready to receive Jesus? Will we be prepared to receive him? Loyolapress.com

12 DE NOVIEMBRE – TRIGESIMO-SEGUNDO DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

LECTURAS Y REFLEXION PARA ESTE DOMINGO

Sabiduría 6:12-16 Salmos 63:2,3-4,5-6,7-8 1 Tesalonicenses 4:13-18 Mateo 25:1-13

La lectura de esta semana sigue una serie de advertencias y predicciones de Jesús sobre la venida del Hijo del Hombre. Jesús quiere que sus discípulos entiendan que no se puede predecir el día y la hora exactos. Enseña a los discípulos que deben permanecer vigilantes para que no los pillen desprevenidos.

Al pensar en la parábola de las vírgenes prudentes y las insensatas, es importante considerar las tradiciones nupciales de Palestina del primer siglo. Los eruditos nos dicen que era costumbre de la época que las jóvenes doncellas, amigas y familiares de la novia, recibieran al novio cuando éste venía a llevar a su novia a su nuevo hogar.

Como ocurre con muchas de las parábolas de Jesús, son posibles varios niveles de interpretación. En el Evangelio de la semana pasada, escuchamos a Jesús advertir contra seguir el ejemplo de los fariseos y los escribas. Si se lee en el contexto de la lucha del cristianismo primitivo por definirse contra el judaísmo farisaico, esta parábola es una crítica continua del judaísmo. Sugiere que los líderes judíos eran como las vírgenes insensatas, no preparadas para encontrarse con Jesús, el novio de Israel.

Sin embargo, en el capítulo que precede a esta parábola, Jesús advierte sobre la destrucción de Jerusalén, la tribulación del fin de los tiempos y la venida del Hijo del Hombre. Cuando se lee en este contexto, la parábola de hoy es una advertencia a la comunidad cristiana para que permanezca vigilante y preparada para recibir a Jesús, el Hijo del Hombre que regresará al final de los tiempos. Esta interpretación se apoya en la referencia a la demora del novio. La comunidad cristiana para quien Mateo escribió este Evangelio estaba asumiendo que la promesa del regreso de Jesús no se cumpliría durante sus vidas. La pregunta que nos queda por hacernos es: ¿Estamos listos para recibir a Jesús? ¿Estaremos preparados para recibirlo? Loyolapress.com was a Dominican priest and later consecrated a bishop.

He was also a teacher of St. Thomas Aquinas and is remembered as one of the most brilliant minds in the history of the Church.

“It is by the path of love, which is charity, that God draws near to man, and man to God. But where charity is not found, God cannot dwell. If, then, we possess charity, we possess God, for ‘God is Charity.’”
(ref. 1 John 4:8)
