OCTOBER 27TH- THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings and Reflection for this Sunday

Jeremiah 31:7-9 Psalm 126:1-6 Hebrews 5:1-6 Mark 10:46-52

When Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus, the crowd around him tries to silence him. Yet Bartimaeus persists, calling out more loudly and with greater urgency. He will not be silenced or deterred from getting Jesus' attention. We notice how quickly the crowd's reaction changes when Jesus calls for Bartimaeus. Those who sought to quiet him now encourage him. When Jesus restores Bartimaeus's sight, no elaborate action is required. (In other healing stories in Mark's Gospel, actions accompany Jesus' words). In this instance, Jesus simply says that Bartimaeus's faith has saved him. Throughout Mark's Gospel, the success of Jesus' healing power has often been correlated with the faith of the person requesting Jesus' help. For example, it is because of her faith that the woman with the hemorrhage is healed. When faith is absent, Jesus is unable to heal; we see this after his rejection in Nazareth.

Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. In Mark's Gospel, Bartimaeus is the last disciple called by Jesus before he enters Jerusalem. Bartimaeus hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, but he calls out to Jesus using words of faith—"Son of David." Many in Jesus' time believed that the anticipated Jewish Messiah would be a descendent of King David. Bartimaeus's words prepare us for the final episodes of Mark's Gospel, which begin with Jesus' preparation for the Passover and his triumphant entry into Jerusalem. As Mark has shown us in our readings over the past few Sundays, however, Jesus will be the Messiah in a way that will be difficult for many to accept. Jesus will show himself to be the Messiah through his suffering and death. Loyolapress.com

All Saints Day, Nov 1 - Please join us for Mass Nov. 01 for the feast of All Saints. Masses are at 8:30am and 6:30pm.

This is a Holy Day of Obligation. We will have relics available to venerate during the Masses.

All Souls Day, Nov 2- There will be a Memorial Table in the entrance of the church to honor the memory of your loved ones. You are welcome to bring pictures of your deceased family/friends so we can honor their memory during the month of November.

There's nothing intrinsically wrong with costumes and candy, but in the minds of most people Halloween has become so detached from its religious roots that they have no idea where it comes from. Hallow comes from the same root as holy, and a person who is hallowed is a saint—someone who has been sanctified or made holy. Thus, in the Lord's Prayer we say "Hallowed be thy name." If we said that in using words derived from Latin, it would be something like, "Let your name be sanctified"—i.e., may people treat God's name as something holy and thus honor the holiness of God himself. As the Catholic Church gets ready to celebrate All Saints Day, we are reminded that this great solemnity is not just about remembering those great canonized saints, it's also about recognizing all those unknown holy men and women who faithfully followed Jesus throughout the ages. May we reflect how God is calling us to be saints and to love extraordinarily in our ordinary circumstances. Spend 9 minutes with Bishop Barron

27 DE OCTUBRE - TRIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Lecturas y Reflexión para este Domingo

Jeremías 31:7-9 Salmo 126:1-6 hebreos 5:1-6 Marcos 10:46-52

Cuando Bartimeo llama a Jesús, la multitud a su alrededor trata de silenciarlo. Sin embargo, Bartimeo persiste, gritando más fuerte y con mayor urgencia. No será silenciado ni disuadido de llamar la atención de Jesús. Nos damos cuenta de lo rápido que cambia la reacción de la multitud cuando Jesús llama a Bartimeo. Aquellos que trataron de calmarlo ahora lo animan. Cuando Jesús restaura la vista de Bartimeo, no se requiere ninguna acción elaborada. (En otras historias de sanación en el Evangelio de Marcos, las acciones acompañan las palabras de Jesús). En este caso, Jesús simplemente dice que la fe de Bartimeo lo ha salvado. A lo largo del Evangelio de Marcos, el éxito del poder sanador de Jesús a menudo se ha correlacionado con la fe de la persona que solicita la ayuda de Jesús. Por ejemplo, es gracias a su fe que la mujer con la hemorragia es sanada. Cuando la fe está ausente, Jesús es incapaz de sanar; lo vemos después de su rechazo en Nazaret. Una vez que ha recuperado la vista, Bartimeo sigue a Jesús en su camino a Jerusalén. En el Evangelio de Marcos, Bartimeo es el último discípulo llamado por Jesús antes de entrar a Jerusalén. Bartimeo escucha que Jesús de Nazaret está pasando, pero llama a Jesús con palabras de fe: "Hijo de David". Muchos en la época de Jesús creían que el esperado Mesías judío sería descendiente del rey David. Las palabras de Bartimeo nos preparan para los episodios finales del Evangelio de Marcos, que comienzan con la preparación de Jesús para la Pascua y su entrada triunfal en Jerusalén. Sin embargo, como Marcos nos ha mostrado en nuestras lecturas de los últimos domingos, Jesús será el Mesías de una manera que será difícil de aceptar para muchos. Jesús se mostrará a sí mismo como el Mesías a través de su sufrimiento y muerte. Loyolapress.com

Día de Todos los Santos, 1 de noviembre - Únase a nosotros para la Misa el 1 de noviembre para la fiesta de Todos los Santos. Las misas son a las 8:30 a.m. y a las 6:30 p.m. Este es un Día Santo de Precepto. Tendremos reliquias disponibles para venerar durante las Misas.

Día de los Fieles Difuntos, 2 de noviembre- Habrá una mesa conmemorativa en la entrada de la iglesia para honrar la memoria de sus seres queridos. Le invitamos a traer fotos de su familia / amigos fallecidos para que podamos honrar su memoria durante el mes de noviembre.

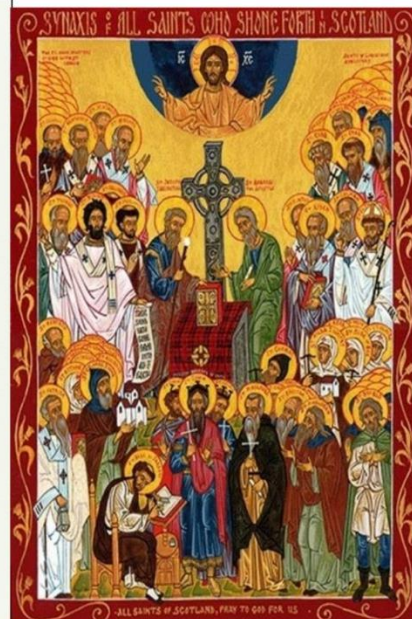

No hay nada intrínsecamente malo con los disfraces y los dulces, pero en la mente de la mayoría de las personas, Halloween se ha desvinculado tanto de sus raíces religiosas que no tienen idea de dónde viene. Santificar viene de la misma raíz que santo, y una persona que es santificada es un santo, alguien que ha sido santificado o hecho santo. Por eso, en el Padre Nuestro decimos: "Santificado sea tu nombre". Si dijéramos eso al usar palabras derivadas del latín, sería algo así como: "Que tu nombre sea santificado", es decir, que las personas traten el nombre de Dios como algo santo y así honrar la santidad de Dios mismo. Mientras la Iglesia Católica se prepara para celebrar el Día de Todos los Santos, se nos recuerda que esta gran solemnidad no se trata solo de recordar a esos grandes santos canonizados, sino también de reconocer a todos esos hombres y mujeres santos desconocidos que siguieron fielmente a Jesús a lo largo de los siglos. Que reflexionemos sobre cómo Dios nos está llamando a ser santos y a amar extraordinariamente en nuestras circunstancias ordinarias. Pasa 9 minutos con el obispo Barron
